Item No.4

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of corporate law, this explanatory statement sets forth the material facts concerning the strategic corporate restructuring of the group. To optimize capital allocation and enhance long-term shareholder value, the Board of Directors proposes a threefold restructuring plan: first, the divestment of the company's entire underperforming equity stake in Master Mind Advertisement Private Limited; second, the formal strike-off and closure of three entirely inactive, asset-less, and commercially unviable subsidiaries (Cressanda Green Energy Vehicles Limited, Cressanda Anyalitica Services Private Limited, and Cressanda E-Platform Private Limited) via Form STK-2 or local statutory equivalents; and third, the complete corporate separation and carve-out of Cressanda Consumers Private Limited through a compliant share divestment or demerger scheme. This separation will include the settlement of all outstanding intercompany balances, loans, and shared service agreements prior to the effective date, allowing the unit to operate as a fully independent entity. The Board recommends the adoption of this Ordinary Resolution as it streamlines group operations, eliminates administrative maintenance costs for defunct entities, and redirects resources toward core growth areas.
